

Kawach Beej/Kouncha/Kapi Kachhu/Velvet beans/Kuhiri are the different names of "Mucuna Pruriens"

< Under "Contract Farming" of Medicinal Plants on 500 Acres >

"Seeds and Technical know-how is Free, 100% Buy-Back at Fix price"

It's a Medicinal plant/climber, needs support system for better yield and quality of the seeds.

1. Net profit - Rs.20 to 25 thousand/acre in 5 Months.
2. Sowing – June / July, in the start of monsoon after one or two good rains.
3. Irrigation - This is a rain fed crop but with one or two irrigation (irrigation in September/October and during the long gap in two rains) yield will be high.
4. Spacing – 8 X 6, 5 X 8 three/two seed at one spot. Seed rate - 3Kg/acre.
5. Soil - Medium to light with well drained, for heavy soil ridges and furrows are advised and sowing has to be done on Ridges.
6. Crop duration - Around 5 month.
7. Harvesting - Normally beans gets matured in the first week of November and become black in second week and ready for harvest in third week of November. Harvesting is done at one stroke/ at once.
8. Yield - Average yield is 5 quintal seed/acre. Generally 6 to 7 quintal of seed can be taken with proper management and good support system for the climbers.
9. Expenses - Around Rs.5-6 thousand/acre, mainly for fertilizer (Rs.1,500), support system and other agriculture activities.
10. Uses – Because of high protein it is being used in High quality animal feed and also used in high grade food supplement for the Sportsman.

For booking (Booking will be closed by 15 May,17), Hurry up, kindly send sms with Full Name- Mob. No,..... Location..... And acreage.....(for cultivation) to 9422881280, 7083757145. Or call on these Mob. no.